Near farm we can admire landscapes offered by the marvelous valley of the river until, to visit the towns of arsitia, Bisenti, Castiglione Messer Raimondo, MONTEFINO and Castilenti, arsitia immersed in the green. Along the road you will find several palaces nobility and the parish church of Santa Vittoria, the Church 1500s restored in 1700 that preserves, inside, a 1700 wood sculpture of the dead Christ. A short distance away the church of SS. Trinity, with a door in bas-relief in wood. In the area device, on a fortress, is a tower octagonal now belonging to non-existent fortified walls and battlemented of 400.

On a hill not far from the centre there is, then, the Romanesque church of Santa Maria d' Aragona where it is possible to admire a fresco 15c reproducing the image of the Madonna. rich of monuments is Bisenti.

Particular is the baroque mother church of Santa Maria degli Angeli with the bell tower and, inside, a statue of terracotta of the Madonna with Child. Also interesting is the home of the 1400 badiale, the medieval tower, the fountains ancient and the characteristic street in the support. Legend has it that it is NATO Bisenti Pontius Pilate and, in testimony to this, the inhabitants of the village indicate what would have been, a time, his house.

Just outside houses of Bisenti, we find S. Pietro Church that dominates an enchanting landscape. In Castiglione Messer Raimondo centre from the ancient origins, in the church of San Nicola di Bari, is kept a beautiful processional cross of copper and silver gilt of SEC. XVI. It is worth, then, to visit the archaeological excavations in Colle San Giorgio, where were found the remains of a sanctuary Italico which are dated back to the period Italico the first settlement in the territory of Castiglione Messer Raimondo. To visit the ancient village of Appignano. Castilenti is interesting is the parish church that holds a cross. Then deserves a visit the Franciscan convent recently restored. MONTEFINO, perched on a rock, dominates the valley, we find in the high part "fortress of court" shows structures relating to a tower 1500s a square plan. Under the fortress develops on terraces the village, including the castle of Acquaviva and the church of S. Giacomo. Direction Cellino Attanasio (Castle of the Dukes of Acquaviva, with the remains of walls by cylindrical towers, and the beautiful parish church of Santa Maria La Nova, the portal 1300s is the work of artist Matteo De Caprio) Monteguallieri are worth a visit because it presents a particular feature only in Abruzzo: the triangular tower of the '300, probably built with the intention of sighting. From Bisenti is reached in approximately 30 minutes is the sea that the mountain. 25 minutes from farm we find one of most important cities of art Abruzzo. Atri, just reach Piazza Duomo to admire a true compendium of the history of the city of Atri, the testimonies align more precisely in this square. In the East rises the Cathedral of Santa Maria Assunta, raised in 1285 on another church in the IX-X century. Splendid its four sites, dating back to last years of 1200s. The facade has a portal of Rainaldo and a rose window surmounted by a small niche that contains a statue of the Madonna and Child. The interior, with three naves, presents an apse square with frescoed walls by Andrea De lithium in the second half of the 1400s. The museum annexed preserves precious relics: painted majolica, crosses and pastoral ivory and silver, illuminated manuscripts, reliquari, wood carvings, statues and hundreds of fragments and mosaics of building more ancient. Also the beautiful cloister, with two orders, and the campanile with crowning octagonal, finished in the ESA. XV by Antonio da Lodi. 1700s is, however, the church of Santa Reparata, UNITA southern flank of the Basilica and rich of testimonies Baroque. Always in Piazza Duomo, in the northern part, extends the portico to round arches of Palazzo set and, to south, the Episcopal Palace and the seminar in the late 1500s. In this space there is also the 19 th-century Theatre, still perfectly preserved and used for theatrical seasons and music. By leaving then, on the left of the theatre, on course Adriano, always on the left meets the church of Sant' Agostino, of the first of the 1300s, with a portal executed in 1420 about from Matteo from Naples. Shortly after, on the right, opens the fantastic facade of the church of San Francesco, rebuilt, the first of 1700s, on a 1200s construction. At the end of the course Adriano you reach Piazza Marconi, where it stands, majestic, the Palazzo Ducale of Acquaviva, current municipal seat. It is a kind of fortress, all in stone, built in the first half of the 1300s, underwent various transformations in the '700. Its facade hides a Renaissance courtyard surrounded by a patio that guards entries and Roman remains. From the piazza, through an arch leads to meditative San Nicola, with the homonymous church, founded after the 1000 and rebuilt in the ESA. XIII. From here, crossing the street Picena will take you off Holy Spirit, where there is a church, rebuilt on a construction of the SEC. XII, that by the name to the square. Therefore, along the ring road that parallels the walls century and returning in the Piazzetta San Nicola, riuscendone immediately meets via Acquaviva at the end is the church of Santa Chiara, built in the 1200s but rebuilt in 1500s. Continuing via Santa Chiara, long the convent of the Clares, turning on the left is back on the ring, where the church of San Domenico dating back to the first of the 1300s. The Church, in the lower part, keeps a structure coated in bands alternate in stone and cooked. the portal reminiscent of the Cathedral, while the upper part and the inside are remakes eighteenth-century. In addition to the monuments mentioned, for the ancient fountains, the caves and for those real architectures of nature that are the gullies, Atri worth a visit for all the beauty that preserves, witness of a civil history and artistic very rich.
